Business tips for starting a profitable creative business.

Deciding what to sell

List all the products you (can) make/sell to earn money:

| | |
|-------|-------|
| _____ | _____ |
| _____ | _____ |
| _____ | _____ |
| _____ | _____ |
| _____ | _____ |

Ask yourself, do these make me money?

Yes No IDK?

Do I enjoy making them?

Yes No IDK?

Will making these items fit into my life right now?

Or later?

Yes No IDK?

Did you answer Yes to most of those questions? Then you've got this, girl. Let's get to work. Start a list of things you need to do on the business side to make this happen.

I'll start with a couple of examples that might apply, simply cross them off if they don't ...

Item / Task / System to set up / etc

Date to have it done by

Pick a Name - Open a Business Facebook page

Decide on how to take money (invoicing, Paypal, Stripe, etc)

Deciding where to sell

List all the places you can think of to sell your handmade items:
(Etsy, Facebook, and names of vendor shows, craft events, etc.)

| | |
|-------|-------|
| _____ | _____ |
| _____ | _____ |
| _____ | _____ |
| _____ | _____ |
| _____ | _____ |

Let's get you organized to move forward.

1. Fill in the list of the things you need to do for your business.
2. Mark the items either "I can do them," or "I need help" to get them done right.

Next time you are ready to work on your business, you now can easily see what needs to be done. Research and learn, or hire (trade services), to get things done.
